Lew Sterrett brings lessons for life from the language of the horse.

Lew Sterrett of Miracle Mountain Ranch, Spring Creek, PA, is coming to _____

He uses horses in various stages of training in Sermon on the Mount® presentations to illustrate lessons for life. "Our purpose", says Sterrett "is to help people understand how healthy relationships develop and how they can experience harmony and success in their own lives."

The Sermon on the Mount® team will be in _____ on _____ at _____

There is no admission fee charged, although donations are appreciated.

As international speaker, horse trainer, and certified counselor, Lew Sterrett has developed several video and TV Series. In addition to his travels, Lew serves as Executive Director of Miracle Mountain Ranch. Lew shows how a trainer's character wins the heart of the horse, setting the stage for future success in all areas of training.

This presentation is presented to over 30 thousand people annually in around 25 states and provinces each year. People of all ages and religious backgrounds and horse or non-horse enthusiasts are welcoming this presentation into their communities as a challenging and encouraging experience. Some have said "it is a picture worth a thousand words".

We invite you to come see
